

G A N J I

GUARDIANSHIP ASSOC. OF NJ, INC.

Education Institute 2011

“Ethical Considerations and the Client with Diminished Capacity”

Shirley B. Whitenack, Esq.

Sharon Rivenson Mark, Esq.

Free CEUs for Attorneys, Social Workers and Registered Guardians

This program will examine the ethical issues relating to clients with diminished capacity due to age and/or disability, including a discussion of the following:

Overview of the rules of Professional Conduct for attorneys, the Code of Ethics for social workers, and the National Guardianship Association Standards of Practice for Registered Guardians

Three standards of Legal Capacity

The roles of attorneys, care managers, physicians and other allied professionals

Thursday, September 15, 2011

Crowne Plaza Monroe, 390 Forsgate Drive, Monroe, NJ 08831

For directions go to: www.ganji.org

Check-In 9:15 AM

Program 9:30am - 11:30 AM

Continuing education credit is pending from the New Jersey Board on Continuing Legal Education for attorneys and from the Center for Guardianship Certification for registered guardians. Social workers please contact trose@eldercarefamily services for information on CEUs. This course is intended for all levels of social work practitioners. Certificates will be awarded at the conclusion of the workshop based upon attendance and the completion of course evaluation.

Registration Information:

Please return this registration form to:

GANJI

PO Box 546, Chester, NJ 07930

Or Fax to: 908-879-9311

Questions or Special Needs?

Email: pbarber@optonline.net

Phone: 877-GUARDNJ or 973-927-5714

Name of Registrant _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

___ Attorney

___ Registered Guardian

___ Social Work License# _____